

Freakclown

Le Sommelier

with Alessandro Vallin and Stefano Locati

Director: Philip Radice

God made only water, but the man made wine! (Victor Hugo)

Wine is the song of the earth toward heaven. (Luigi Veronelli)

A wine tasting act filled with humour, a show in the making! From flying bottles, extreme balancing acts, musical glasses and voiced bottles, the Freakclown explore the world of enology in their own way, with their physical and eccentric humor. The two, as they turn into improbable sommeliers, create a show that mixes live music, extravagant and unique instruments, acrobatics, magic and poetry in a bright and mysterious scenography. Between surreal jokes and enological virtuosity, Freakclown will lead you into the magical world of wine.
